Message of the Promise

SORROW AND SIGHING SHALL FLEE AWAY. ISAIAH 35:10

My beloved Child of God who is eagerly awaiting the promise of the Lord!

The word of God says:

Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Beloved friend with sorrow!

Proverb 14:13 says:

Even in laughter the heart may sorrow, and the end of mirth may be grief.

Ecclesiastes 1:14 says:

I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and indeed all is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Genesis 47:9 And Jacob said: Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life.

These verses make us realise that even in laughter the heart may sorrow, and the end of mirth may be grief. Many a time there is smile on your lips but your heart is in sorrow. Others who look at you are talking to themselves "What is their lacking?" But your heart? It is withering in anguish.

Look at what Job says:-

Job 17:7 My eye has also grown dim because of sorrow.

When sorrow increases eyes are growing dim.

So Job says in Job 6:2 "Oh my grief were fully weighed, and my calamity laid with it on the scales!"

Aren't you also saying like job with distress? Haven't you thought as below in your heart frequently?

Romans 7:24 O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death?

Jeremiah 8:18 I will comfort myself in sorrow; my heart is faint in me.

Jeremiah 20:18 Why did I come forth from the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

My beloved brother and sister who are saying frequently Swith sorrow Why was I born? Why am I alive?

It is for you alone that the word of God comes passing through.

Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

O Brother who is praising God in your heart and O Sister who is unknowingly boasting about your righteousness!

Ecclesiastes 8:6 says: Because for every matter there is a time and judgement, though the misery of the man increases greatly.

First, realise that there is judgement for your misery and secondly believe that there is a time for every matter.

You won't remain with sorrow like this, always.

Ecclesiastes 3:4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh.

O youthful brother and sister who are earning sorrow and disaster by intervening in unwanted problems!

Ecclesiastes 11:10 says: Remove sorrow from your heart and put away evil from your flesh, for childhood and youth are vanity.

Beloved youthful brother and sister!

Put away sorrow and disaster from your heart.

Proverb 28:13 says: He who covers his sins will not prosper, but whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy.

So, do not cover it to God but confess and forsake it.

1John 1:7 The blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin.

Is not covetousness another reason for sorrow?

Proverb 15:16 says: Better is a little with the fear of the Lord, than great treasure with trouble.

What is the reason for your sorrow? Is it gold? materials? land? job? child? family? unknowingly done mistake? or knowingly done mistake? Whatever it might be.

The promise, the Lord gives you this month is:-

Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

The Lord promises that not only sorrow but sighing shall also flee away.

Sorrow is an act of having pain within oneself.

But sighing means, not finding a path to run away.

Lamentations 3:19 Remember my affliction and roaming, the worm wood and the gall.

Nowadays many people are dismayed without knowing how to escape from many problems.

Psalm 38:9 Lord, all my desire is before you; and my sighing is not hidden from you.

Psalm 31:10 For my life is spent with grief and my years with sighing; my strength falls because of my inequity, and my bones waste away.

Ephesians 6:12 We do not wrestle against flesh and blood but against principalities and against powers.

This is what Proverbs 29:2 says:

When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice but when a wicked man rules, the people groan.

Isaiah 24:4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world languishes and fades away; the haughty people of the earth languish.

Exodus 2:23 The Children of Israel groaned because of the bondage and they cried out; and their cry came up to God because of the bondage. Hallelujah.

O Deacon and child of God who are groaning that you were doing bonded work, your cry had come up to God.

O Children of God who beseech saying that you were treated as a bond servant in the work place, your cry had come up to God.

O brothers and sisters who are languishing with the thought that you did not have a job meriting your qualification, that you had no income and that you had no respect, your cry had come up to God.

Therefore, Sorrow and sighing shall flee away. Amen.

I am making mention of an important thing. No matter how many explanations we may offer, what does the Word of God say?

Isaiah 35:10 And the Ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with singing, with everlasting joy on their heads. They shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

To whom everlasting joy and gladness?

From whom sorrow and sighing shall flee away?

Just one answer: The ransomed of the Lord.

My beloved Children of the Lord!
Have you been ransomed

by the Lord? Do you want the joy of ransom?

Job says: My Redeemer lives.

The Redeemer whom we worship is alive. Our Redeemer sacrificed His life and obtained redemption to redeem us who were dead in sin and curse.

When we confess our sins daily with fervant prayers, judge ourselves, wait for the will of God and make relationship with God, Sorrow and sighing shall flee away. He will give strength to bear it, will make the way to escape and will grant grace to accept the will of God.

Confess your faith frequently, this month, as below:-

In the name of Jesus my sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

In the name of Jesus my sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Confess your faith again and again.

Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

The Devotee sings:-

Withered life shall flourish

By the grace of the Holy God

Everlasting joy shall be on the head

Sorrow and sighing shall flee away

For this is God, our God forever and ever, He will be our guide even to death.

Everlasting God is your refuge

His eternal arm in your support.

May God bless you.

Amen.

Missionary report of TVGM promotional office Kanyakumari District

By the grace of God, the missionary works during September 2008 were carried out with blessings. Since we got an unexpected contact with Pastor Ramesh, CLC Church, Melmidalam we had an opportunity to do the promotional work in his Church on 14th September. He has extended full co-operation and the members of his Church have begun to support the ministry.

Since one mother in the evangelical work ministry became weak there was a hurdle in that ministry during the end of the month. Pray that the Lord may strengthen her and utilize her in the ministry again.

The monthly house visit ministry done for the first time in Anjugramam - Srilakshmipuram was also blessed by the Lord.

We are praying, awaiting a favourable reply to the letters seeking permission for the new promotional work. We request the God's Children also to pray for that. Some people from outside with whom we had contacts came afresh and participated in the midnight prayer on 30th September. It was of great blessing. Glory be to God.
