 JESUS CHRIST IS LORD ***
TAMIL VILLAGE GOSPEL MISSION
Chief Executive officer Letter Dated: 11.04. 2009

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

By the immense grace of God we have been able to identify some villages in Karambakudi, Ponnamaravathi and Manikandam unions to construct Churches. Please pray for God to open doors to construct these Churches. Please also pray that these Churches should be built without any difficulty.

I was able to meet more christian leaders and speak with them regarding the scope of the new Leasership project. Based on our review so far we have felt that there is a very big need in India to have such kind of holistic leadership centers that will train Christian ambassadors to play leadership roles in the secular field. We will be working for the registration, this month. Kindly pray for this project in your prayers.

I was also able to attend a mission “Think- Tank” on, “How Christians should handle persecution” organized by India Mission Association.

By the grace of God, my dad and I were able to meet some of the Christian leaders in Chennai and pray for the new leadership project and for the existing ministries we do in villages.

May God Bless You!

In Christ’s Service,
Stephen Christopher

THE LORD REMEMBERS US AND WILL BLESS US.

PSALM 115:12

Beloved Brothers and Sisters,

Who are eagerly waiting for the Lord's promise this month.

Behold! Here comes the word of God especially for you.

Psalm 115:12

The Lord remembers us and will bless us: He will bless the house of Israel, he will bless the house of Aaron.

Yes! Our God is a God who remembers us and who will bless us during times of struggles, weakness and desperate situations when we lose hope. Let us make this verse personal for us. Let us say,

"The Lord will remember me and will bless me".

As we begin this month let us remember and renew our covenant we have made with our Lord and pray about our situation to Him.

Psalm 115:1-8

The psalmist says in this passage,

"Not to us, O Lord, not to us, but to your name be the glory, because of your love and faithfulness." The psalmist also raises a question,

"Why do the nations say, Where is their God? Many times we who have accepted Lord Jesus Christ can come across such questions.

The psalmist in the following verses says, they have hands, but cannot feel, feet but cannot walk; nor can they utter a sound with their throats.

Those who make them will be like them, and so will all who trust in them" The God we serve is a God that hears our prayers, sees our situation and is always willing to bless us.

Psalm 115:9-11

You who fear him, trust in the Lord -He is their help and shield.”
We the children of God need to trust in our God the maker of heaven and earth.

When we trust God and put our faith in Him God will be our help and shield in times of our troubles.

Psalm 115:12

“The Lord remembers us and will bless us: He will bless the house of Israel, He will bless the house of Aaron.”

When we are willing to trust God in our situations God will remember us and bless us.

Psalm 115:13-18

God will bless us despite we are small or great (v.13).

He will increase both you and your children(v.14)

All we have to do is fear God, trust him and praise God at all times.

Genesis 30:22

God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her, and opened her womb.

In this verse, we see that God remembered Rachel and opened her womb.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ. Our God is a God who remembers, listens and does miracle in our lives. In any situation we must be willing to look upto him for help. When we do so God will remember us and change our difficult situations despite whatever the situation may be.

Jonah 2:7

Jonah says, “When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the Lord My prayer came into you, into your holy temple.”

When we read the story of Jonah, we see Jonah disobeyed God. But during his difficult time when his soul faints within him, Jonah remembers God. When we undergo difficult situation in our lives we must remember to ask God for help rather than lament over our situation. When we do so God will be gracious to remember us and bless us.

Psalm 119:55

“I have remembered your name,
Lord, in the night, and
I obey your law.”

We who expect God to remember us during our difficult times must remember God in every second of our life.

David remembered the Lord and obeyed His laws. As a result we see God’s blessings in his life. When we obey God and when we remember him in our daily life, God will remember us and His blessings will rest in our lives.

Numbers 23:20

Behold, I have received a command to bless. He has blessed, and I can’t reverse it.

When God wants to bless His children no one can reverse it. His blessing will solve our problems and we will be a blessing to many.

When we follow the commandments the Lord has given us, He will remember us and bless us.

My dear brothers and sisters!

Please make a confession with your mouth.

I will trust God the maker of heaven and earth.

I will follow your commandments oh! God

I will obey your word.

I will remember you at all times.

My dear brother and sister!

Maybe you are waiting to be freed from debt, to get promotion, to have a child or to build a house. Please be assured that God has remembered you and will bless you in whatever situation you may be. He will never leave you nor forsake you.

The saint sings:

The thing that God thinks to accomplish no one can stop
He has finished everything in a good manner

God has thought you .

He will change your situations.

Keep praising God at all times.

There is always hope in Jesus.

PERSECUTION AND GOSPEL IN THE CHRISTIAN REALM

Beloved in Christ,

How do we present the Gospel?

The Gospel must be contextualized to specific audience: By this the Gospel without being changed must be told in a way that people from a certain country or religion can understand. In other words Gospel must be made more Indian for Indian context. It must not be viewed a foreign religion.

The Gospel must not be contaminated: By this the Gospel must be pure it should not be contaminated by any other personal or religious views.

The Gospel message must be made public to a certain extent: Public presentations must incorporate the Gospel message. It should be said in a way the general public can understand.

The Gospel message needs to be transformational one: The Gospel message needs to be presented in a way with the same passion and intensity every time it is presented so that It may transform the inner self of a man.

We need to reflect Christ so that the Gospel may be sought out: Our life should reflect Christ so that people may come to us seeing our testimony and our Godly life.

The Gospel message should be neutral: The Gospel message should be said as it is without adding to it and without minimizing it.

The communication of the Gospel must be an every day act of every Christian: The Gospel presentation should not be an event it should be an everyday act of a Christian.

Persecution that comes to us when we present the Gospel in the right way will expand the kingdom of God and will be a blessing in our lives. We as Christians need to expect persecution and be more prepared to handle it. Persecution is unavoidable. We read in Mathew 5:10 “Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of God.

Persecution expands the kingdom of God more rapidly. We read in Acts 8:1 “On that day a great persecution broke out against the Church at Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout Judea and Samaria. We also read in Matthew 10:23, “When you are persecuted in one place, flee to another”. By being scattered through persecution the gospel spreads in different places and spreads more rapidly.

We must endure persecution and suffering. We read in 1 Corinthians 4:12, “We work hard with our own hands. When we are cursed, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it” we also read in 2 Corinthians 4:9, “Persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed.” So we must understand that through persecution the kingdom of God expands. Never in the history has there been a story were Christianity died because of persecution. So we must ask God for strength to endure persecution. Glory to God!
