HUNDRED VILLAGE MINISTRY

AUGUST 2010

YOU SHALL RAISE UP THE FOUNDATIONS
OF MANY GENERATIONS. Isaiah 58:12.

Dear Brothers and Sisters that await the promise of the Lord this month.

The promise that the Lord gives you this month is... Isaiah 58:12
“You shall raise up the foundations of many generations”

Dear children of God, today many people establish materialistic blessings for their children in their lifetime. They send their children abroad and help them settle down in life. But many times the wealth that is gathered by them in this world falls apart in the next generation. But as children of God, the Lord gives us this promise saying,

“You shall raise up the foundations of many generations”

The key behind the promise that the Lord gives us this month is that, when we read in the same chapter it emphasizes more on true fasting. We must develop a habit to fast and pray on a regular basis that will be acceptable in His sight.

When we do so, the blessing that the Lord gives us will have no boundaries. It will keep extending to our generations to come. We will be like a watered garden as we read in Isaiah 58:11 “You shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water”.

God expects us to obey Him and keep His commandments. When we do so, His love extends to a thousand generations as we read in Exodus 20: 6 – “but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love and keep my commandments.” Moreover, we read this in Deu. 7: 9 – “know therefore that the Lord your God is God; He is the faithful God, keeping His covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love him and keep his commands.

When God does miracles in our lives we must preserve things related to the miracle in order to explain to our future generation. We read a similar instance in Exodus 16:32 - Moses said, This is what the Lord has commanded: ‘Take an omer of manna and keep it for the generations to come, so they can see the bread I gave you to eat in the desert when I brought you out of Egypt.’

The commandments that the Lord gives us are, for us to keep through generations as we read in Numbers 15: 23 – “any of the Lord’s commands to you through him, from the day the Lord gave them and continuing through the generations to come”

Today, in the modern generation many children are not interested in what the elders and parents have to say. But we need to learn through them as we read in Deu 32:7 – Remember the days of old; consider the generations long past. Ask your father and he will tell you, your elders, and they will explain to you. Similarly, we read in Job 8:8 – “Ask the former generation and find out what their fathers learned”.

Our God is a God who keeps His covenant through generations and not just one generation as we read in Genesis 17:7 – “I will establish my covenant as an everlasting covenant between me and you and your descendants after you for the generations to come, to be your God and the God of your descendants after you.”

The Lord never forgets His commandments, He remembers His commandments forever. We read this in I Chronicles 16:15 – “He remembers His covenant forever, the word He commanded, for a thousand generations.”

We also read that the plans of the Lord stand firm through all generations as we read in Psalm 33:11 – “But the plans of the Lord stands firm forever, the purposes of His heart through all generations”.

God’s love and faithfulness continues through all generations as we read in Psalm 100: 5 – “For the Lord is good and His love endures forever; His faithfulness continues through all generations.”

God is righteous and His righteousness and salvation will last forever as we read in Isaiah 51:8 “For the moth will eat them up like a garment; the worm will devour them like wool. But my righteousness will last for ever, my salvation through all generations.”

We need to do seven things in our daily life in order to be a foundation for our future generations.

1. Repentance and spiritual restoration
2. Follow the leading of the Holy Spirit.
3. Expect to see manifestations
4. Hunger for the word of God
5. Give glory and honor to God alone
6. Willingness to serve God.
7. Selling ourselves for His kingdom

First, before you become a foundation for your future generations God expects you to repent and repair your past and present. It is His desire that you become perfect in His sight. God will give you His grace to become perfect. He sent His only begotten son to save you and redeem you that you may be spiritually restored. We read this in Acts 3: 19-21, “Repent, then and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord.” We must repent and thirst for righteousness as we read in Matthew 5:6, “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness.”

Secondly, God expects you to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit in all that you do. It is only when you follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit can you walk in His will. He pours out His spirit on all His people even today as we read in Heb. 13:8, “He poured out His Spirit on the early Church. He does the same today! Expect it, believe it, look for it.”

Thirdly, you must expect to see manifestation in your life. The more you see manifestations, the more you can see the glory of God in your life. We read this in Habakkuk 3:2, “Lord, I have heard of your fame; I stand in awe of your deed, O Lord.”

Fourthly, you must hunger for the word of God. It is the word of God that will keep us going through all generations. The more you read His word, the more you will grow in Him. We read how people hungered for the word of God in Acts 17:11, “They received the word with all readiness of mind and searched the scriptures daily.”

Fifthly, you need to give all the glory to Him whenever we get success. The world might praise you, but you need to give the glory to Him alone. Our God is supreme as we read in Colossians 1:18, “In everything He might have the supremacy.”

Sixthly, you need to be willing to serve God in return for what he has done in your life. The more you serve Him, the more you can please God. We read this in Ephesians 4:11-12, “It was He who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, to prepare God’s people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up.”

Seventhly, you need to sell yourselves for the kingdom values. The more you sell yourselves for the kingdom values, the more you can influence the society around you. Like Peter says to Jesus in Matthew 19:27, “Behold, we have forsaken all and followed thee.”

The more you build the kingdom of God, the more God will lift you up in this world and He will bless your future generations.

Keep confessing your faith as follows this month:

*I will lead a righteous life.
I will be a foundation for many generations.
Glory to God!*

THE AMBASSADOR SCHOOL OF LEARNING TASOL

INTEGRITY IN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP

In the Indian scenario compared to the olden days, there are many leaders who have been doing well and are coming up. Many north and south Indian leaders have been trained overseas or within India. Therefore the growth and development in these recent years have been enormous.

While there is an increase in the number of leaders, it is imperative that we emphasize more on the quality of the leadership. The more the integrity of leaders, the more will be the quality of leadership.

Leadership at its height calls for the transformation of the society. Transformation when needs to be done in a holistic way calls for leaders who have faith, commitment and integrity to move an organization in the right direction to transform the society.

Today, in the world of so much modernization a good leader must know how to integrate his / her integrity into modernization. When a leader is able to do so, a good Christian leader will stand out compared to a secular leader.

Today, while the number of Christian leaders grow it is important to have leaders with Christian integrity. Lack of integrity in Christian leadership can cause serious damage to the modern society.

Five attributes a leader with integrity will have.

- 1. Learning to say "NO"*
- 2. Maintaining Good relationship with God and Man*
- 3. Transparency in every aspect of leadership.*
- 4. Maintaining humility*
- 5. Easy accessibility*

Firstly, many leaders today do not have the courage to say “NO” when they are supposed to say “No”. They take sides with the aspects of modernization. A healthy fish will swim against the flow of the water. Similarly, a leader with integrity must have the courage to say “NO” when things go wrong or when and he is pressured to go with the flow. We read this in Mathew 5: 37, “Simply let your ‘Yes’ be ‘Yes’ and your ‘No’ ‘No; anything beyond this comes from the evil one’”.

Secondly, a good leader must maintain a strong relationship with God and be accountable to the society. A good leader must balance both the relationship with God and Men to be effective in what he does.

Thirdly, a leader must be able to answer any question that is posted to him/her regarding his/her integrity. Transparency today in many leaders is lacking to a great extent. Many leaders are not open enough to share about their personal integrity. They feel it is not a question that is to be asked to them.

Fourthly, a Christian leader must maintain humility and servant hood leadership in every walk of his/her life. Many leaders think it is below their dignity to be humble. However, God expects us to be humble. God is against a person who is proud as we read in Proverbs 3:34, “He mocks proud mockers but gives grace to the humble’”.

Fifthly, a leader must be easily accessible. Today, many leaders are not easily accessible. They are too busy with their schedules. Many do not have time for their own family. God is interested in spending time with Him and our family.

It is imperative that we focus more on the quality of leadership rather than the quantity of leadership. Although, quantity is required there must be integrity to its maximum extent to increase the quality of leadership.

Let us pray that we will train and develop leaders with higher level of Integrity.

Glory to God!

2010 May Month of Ministry Report

By grace of God, the ministries of June 2010 was completed successfully. The Lord blessed all the preparatory works and the needs of Kuruthancodu Union - “ 100-Village Minstry”.
