Isaiah 54:4

Promise Message : Mrs. Persis Stephen

Dear Brothers & Sisters who eagerly wait for the Lord's promise!

The promise that the Lord gives you this month is,

“Fear not,
for you will not be ashamed”

Isaiah 54:4

The Lord gives this promise to the Israelites through prophet Isaiah. In the 54th chapter of Isaiah, the prophet compares Israel to a barren, shameful, and destitute woman. But Isaiah prophesies that the Lord would redeem them back.

Dear Children of God! You too could have been put to shame either in your work place or business or in your family or in the ministry. But you will not be ashamed anymore. The Lord will change your situations.

Joel 2:27 says, “Then you will know that I am in Israel, that I am the LORD your God, and that there is no other; never again will my people be shamed”.

Whenever the Israelites went away from the Lord, the Lord reminded them that He was their God. We are also the children of God. Many times when we go astray, we are put to shame. But our loving and compassionate God makes us realize our mistakes through His words and removes our shame. We have to understand this. Let us see what the Bible says us to do in-order not be ashamed.

1. Wait upon the lord
2. Seek the Lord
3. Have faith in the Lord
4. Follow the Lord's commandments
5. Be truthful

Firstly, when we wait upon the Lord we will not be put to shame.

The Lord has promised in Isaiah 49:23, “...those who wait for me shall not be put to shame.”

Therefore during times of difficulties, we must not make our own choices or take hasty decisions but wait upon the Lord. Then He will surely not put us to shame. So waiting upon the Lord is very important.

Secondly, when we seek the Lord we will not be put to shame.

Psalms 34:5 says, “Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces shall never be ashamed.”

In the Bible, Hannah was very sad as she was barren. But after she made her supplications to the Lord, we read that she was no longer sad (1 Sam 1:18).

So dear friends, when we seek the Lord and make our petitions, He will surely meet our needs and will not put us to shame.

Thirdly, when we have faith in the Lord we will not be out to shame.

Romans 10:11 says, “Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame.”

(Gen 12:1-7) Since Abraham obeyed the Lord’s voice with faith; we see that he was blessed, died at the age of 175 years and lives in heaven. When we have faith in the Lord, we will surely not be put to shame.

Fourthly, when we follow His commandments we will not be put to shame.

Psalms 119:6 says, “Then I shall not be put to shame, having my eyes fixed on all your commandments.”

The Lord gave us the commandments through Moses for us to follow it carefully. When we follow these commandments we will not be ashamed. David was not put to shame despite he committed sins because he repented.

Fifthly, when we are truthful we will not be put to shame.

Psalm 37: 18, 19 says, “The LORD knows the days of the blameless, and their heritage will remain forever; they are not put to shame in evil times; in the days of famine they have abundance.”

God wants us to be truthful in all the matters. We read that Moses was truthful in all God’s house in Hebrews 3:2. So the Lord used Moses to guide the Israelites.

We read that Apostle Paul was appointed for the Lord’s service because he was trustworthy in 1 Timothy 1:12.

So the Lord will not make the truthful person ashamed.

Therefore when we wait upon the Lord, seek Him, believe Him, follow His commandments and be truthful, He will not surely put us to shame.

Devotee sings...

You will not be ashamed – (2)

Although you have faced problems, losses and evil...

I will give back everything you lost...

You will not be ashamed.

Confess your faith as follows...

“The Lord is with me so

I will not be ashamed anymore”.

God bless you!

Glory to God!

I wrote a letter asking to pray for the healing of a cyst in my foot's finger. But before I could get a reply letter from you, the cyst got healed. Glory to God!

Sis. Sugitha, Neyyoor.

My mother had uterus problem. Doctors told that the uterus had to be removed. We were troubled as how she could bear the operation due to old age. I took a vow and prayed that I would write testimony in 100-village magazine if the operation was successful. On 29th July she was operated successfully by the grace of God. Moreover, my daughter was suffering from cold. We got medicines from the hospital. After a month we were looking for her medical reports to go to hospital. But her reports were missing. Again I took a vow and prayed that I would write testimony in 100-village magazine and began searching the reports. Surprisingly I found the report. Glory to God who heard my prayers.

Note: We send almost thousands of letters every month in regards with sending Bible lessons for people in villages. So you can help this ministry by writing post cards from your home itself. You can write to us and get the model letter for this purpose.
