THE LORD WILL REDEEM YOU FROM THE HAND OF YOUR ENEMIES.

MICAH 4:10

Dear brothers & sisters in Christ that await the promise of the Lord this month!

The promise that the Lord gives you this month is...

“The Lord will redeem you from the hand of your enemies” Micah 4:10.

Dear children of God, we may face hindrances and troubles from our enemies. Today, people in your workplace or Church or ministry or neighbourhood may work against you to suppress you. Even your own kith & kin may turn as enemies to you. You may feel very broken at such times. Don't be afraid! The Lord our God is all powerful to redeem you from the hand of your enemies!

Today's world that is going on a very fast pace is full of uncertainties and dangers. There is lot of jealousy and competition in our day to day life. People may do witchcrafts or plot plans to put you down. But our God is our refuge and strength and a very present help in trouble. (Psalm 46:1).

He will redeem you and give victory over your enemies. Hallelujah!

In the prophetic book of Micah, Micah speaks of how Israel and Judah would be punished for their hypocritical worship, injustice and immorality. He also speaks of redemption and foretells in detail, the destruction of Jerusalem.

Micah prophesized that Israel would be carried away into Babylonian captivity because they of their sins and wickedness. This prophecy was fulfilled during the reign of Nebuchadnezzar and his generals who destroyed Jerusalem. He also prophesized to them that the Lord would redeem them from the hands of their enemies (Micah 4:10). This prophecy was fulfilled during the time of Cyrus who released the Jews from slavery, aiding and encouraging their return to Jerusalem.

We see that God redeemed His people not only from their enemies (Babylon) but also cleansed them from their sin and unrighteousness.

Likewise, today God wants to redeem you from your enemies and rescue you from your transgressions. Amen!

When would God redeem you from your enemies? When we...

1. Confess & repent from sins

2. Be faithful to God

3. Overcome evil with good

1. Confess & Repent from Sins

When we confess our sins and repent, God would rescue us from our enemies.

When the Israelites repeatedly committed sins, God's wrath came upon them. God himself raised enemies against them. But when they turned towards God, repenting for their sins, the Lord rescued them from the hands of their enemies.

When we commit sin, we give our enemy a right to affect us in one way or another. The deeper our sin is, the bigger the door that is opened to the devil. Sin opens the door to demons, which push us in the direction to more sins, thus arising more enemies. If we recognize a particular sin that has opened the door for an enemy in our life, it is the right time for us to confess our sins and repent from them.

1 John 1:9 tells us to confess our sins. If we don't confess our sins and instead we hide them from God, sin will remain in our lives. We need to confess our sins in order to be forgiven and to be saved.

When we are holy & pure no enemy can overcome us. Praise God!

2. Be Faithful to God

When we are faithful to Him, He will surely redeem us from our enemies however powerful they are.

We read in Daniel chapter 3 that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were appointed by King Nebuchadnezzar as administrators under Daniel. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were determined to worship the only true God. They refused to bow and worship the huge image of the king.

They said, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. If this be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up." (Daniel 3:16-18).

Furious with pride and rage, the king ordered the furnace to be heated seven times hotter than normal and they were bound and cast into the flames. The fiery blast was so hot it killed the soldiers who had escorted them. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego emerged unharmed, with not even a hair on their heads singed or the smell of smoke on their clothing. Through God's miraculous deliverance of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego that day, the rest of the Israelites in captivity were given freedom to worship and protection from harm by the king's decree. And Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego received a royal promotion.

These young men when their faith was severely tested, yet even threatened to death, they would not compromise their beliefs.

When we are faithful to the only true God, He will redeem us from our enemies however influential and strong they are.

3. Overcome evil with good

When we overcome evil with good as Jesus did, He will not only rescue us from our enemies but bless us abundantly.

When we read Matthew 5:38-48, we understand that Jesus wants us to love our enemies, pray for them and to do good for them.

In flesh, we may think it is impossible for us to forgive our enemies and love them. But when Jesus lived on this earth, He loved his enemies to the extent He forgave them even when they crucified Him on the cross. Jesus wants us to be perfect as our heavenly Father is perfect.

Paul says in Romans 12: 14-21 Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse... Do not repay anyone evil for evil... Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay," says the Lord. On the contrary: "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink. In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

The Christians are set apart from all others by the way they respond to their enemies. We should not hate our enemies and seek their suffering and destruction. Instead we should love them and do good to them.

When we are faithful to God, free from our sins and when we overcome evil with good, the Lord will redeem us from our enemies and give us victory over them.

The devotee sings...

With the Lord's permission

The devil will come to tempt

But Jesus will not forsake me

He will come and save me...

Confess your faith as follows.

"God will redeem me from my enemies and will give me victory over them". Praise God!

Glory to God!

Do not worry!

We all have to admit that at some point or the other we worry about things. This is a temptation from the devil. As Christian we must not worry about anything. As we read in Mathew 6:25-34. We read that it is a command from Jesus not to worry. Therefore we must not worry about anything. By worrying we will only be like an unbeliever in God's eyes. Therefore let us stop worrying and commit everything to our God. When we do so God will take care of everything in our life.

By worrying ...

We rule out God:

When we worry we do not put God first. We tend to place God in the last place forgetting how great is our God. By doing so we will loose the magnificent things God has for us in place. When we give room for God He will grant the good things in the right time for us. But on the contrary when we worry we tend to rule out God from our agenda. Let us put God first and seek His guidance in our lives.

We don't believe in the Scripture:

When we worry we do not really trust the word of God. There are plenty of Scriptures in the Bible encouraging us not to worry. But when we have a lot of temptations in our lives, we may think the scriptures are for someone else and not for us. This would be a tremendous error. Therefore, we should believe in God's word without worrying.

We get bound by our circumstances:

By worrying we get bound by the circumstances that are the root cause for our worries. Many people think of the difficult circumstances and try to work a way out. It is good to do so. But at the same time we as Christians must learn to commit our problems to the Lord and leave our problem for Him to deal with. But instead, if circumstances trap us we will be bound to it.

We cannot face the future with boldness:

When we keep worrying we will tend to have worries all the time. We will gather the worries and add them every day. By accumulating our worries more and more we will have to go into heavy depression. Jesus said, “Therefore do not be anxious for tomorrow; for tomorrow will care for itself. Each day has enough of its own as we read in Mathew 6:34. Therefore we must learn to deal with the problems as it comes and not worry. Our God will give us the grace to deal with such problem everyday and He will grant us victory every day. We read this in Lamentations 3:23, “ His mercies are new every morning”. Therefore we need to seek the Lord’s grace everyday and move in His direction. So that, we can face our future with boldness.

Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever. When we have doubts about the present and the future let us look to the past and praise God for his marvelous acts in the past. He that has leaded us so far will surely lead us till the end. Praise God!

We do not trust God:

Finally by worrying we lose our trust in God little by little. Ultimately we will completely loose our trust in God. By doubting we doubt God’s greatness and power. By worrying we only increase our distrust in God. Because of this we may lack His blessings. Therefore, let us trust God fully and learn not to worry.

Conclusion

By worrying we only put ourselves down. We will be deviated from the noble plan God has for us. We need to understand that it is a tool used by the devil to put His children down at crucial times. Therefore, we need to put our trust in God first in all so that God will surely grant us strength that is needed to overcome the sprit of worry in our lives. Glory to God !
