I WILL FULFILL TO YOU MY PROMISE.

Jeremiah 29:10

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ that await the promise of the Lord this month. The promise that the Lord gives you this month is

“I will fulfill to you my promise.”

Jeremiah 29:10

Yes! Our God is a God who will keep His promises and will fulfill His promise in our lives. When we read the next verse in Jeremiah 29:11 we read, “ For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare, and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. Yes! dear children of God, no matter what your situation may look like He will surely fulfill His promise in your lives and will give you a future and a hope. Praise God!

When reading the background of this verse, we read that this was written during the time of Babylonian Exile. God promised them that they will return after seventy years and he accomplishes His promise. When God works in our lives even the things that seem evil will be for good. The Lord will certainly do what He promised to do in our lives.

Jeremiah prophesies to the Jews in Babylonian exile. His words are words of encouragement to them. At the same time Jeremiah warns the Jews about the false prophets. Jeremiah foretells judgments upon these false prophets and clarifies to them the promise of the Lord.

We read several instances in the Bible where God gives His promise to His people and fulfills it. Although the fulfillment took time He will fulfill His promise in the right time.

When we read the story of Abraham, He does not have a child in his early years. But God gives him a promise when He called him to do His work. God says in Genesis 12:2, “I will make you into a great nation”.

Although God had promised to make him a great nation he still doubts and gives birth to Ishmael through Hagar, which was not the will of God in His life. But finally we see that God fulfilled His promise in his life by giving him a son Isaac.

While reading the story of Joseph we read that God showed him in a dream that all his families members would bow down before him. We read this in Genesis 37: 5-10, “Look, I have dreamed another dream and this time, the sun, the moon, and the eleven stars bow down before me.” When he tells this dream to his brothers they hated him even more. They laughed at him and tried to kill. But we see that God’s plan and promise in his life was fulfilled after several years.

Yes! Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, our God is a God who gives us life time promises. People may laugh at us or try to put us down. The devil will constantly try to put us down and will try to collapse the will of God in our lives.

But we need to understand that although the journey may be long and difficult at times. The final victory will be ours and no one can stop the work of God in our lives.

Things we need to do so that the will of God will be fulfilled in our lives!

1. We need to trust the promise of the Lord in our lives.

2. We need to wait patiently till the promise of the Lord is fulfilled

3. We need to give God all the Glory

1. First, we as Christians must trust the promise the Lord give us. Many times we do not trust God. When we read the story of Noah, we read that he was a righteous man who trusted and obeyed God fully. When God asked him to build the ark, he trusted God fully and did exactly what God wanted him to do. Therefore God was able to carry out His plan. Therefore, we must learn to trust and obey God fully and do what He commands us to do.

Many times when God gives us such commands and promises, we may have nothing relevant in our present life that matches His promises. We may think it is impossible. We may feel we are not worthy to fulfill the task. But we need to trust the Lord and take Lord's word seriously in our lives. Because He will fulfill His promises in miraculous ways. Therefore, all we need to do is to make sure that we are in the right path and obey God!

2.Second, we must wait patiently until the promise of the Lord is accomplished in our lives. When we read the life of Job in the Bible we read about his patience and perseverance that fascinates us. Even when his wife urges him to criticize God and die Job still is patient and sticks on to his perseverance. His wife says in Job 2:9, "Do you still hold fast your integrity? Curse God and die".

Therefore, we must develop such patience like Job and must persevere till the end until God fulfills His plans in our lives. Therefore we must not be trapped by the temptations the devil brings into our lives. But we must be patient till the right time comes to fulfill the promise the Lord has given us.

3.Third, we need to give God the glory alone. Many times we only stick to God until we get victory. Once we get the victory we forget Him and start becoming proud and we think it was achieved because of our skill and talents. But we need to be very careful and must give God all the glory alone. We must also humble ourselves before God.

When we do the above God will surely be pleased with us and He will grant us victory after victory. No man can stop the victory God give would us.

The Devotee sings...

*The God who made promise
The truthful God who does not change His promise.*

We trust your promise and stand before you

Pour thy spirit upon us.

Yes! Keep singing this song and confess your faith as follows

I will trust the Lord with all my heart. He will fulfill His promises in my life. I will glorify him alone.

Glory to God!

JESUS CHRIST IS LORD

Team 1: Sisters: Vasantha Stephen, Annakili, Mercy, Kavitha.

We gave Gospel books at Athavathur, Pallakadu, Goyathoppu villages. Everyone received them and heard the Gospel with interest. Many told their worries and asked us to pray for them. When we shared the Gospel with a woman, she told that they were living in a forest with their children. She asked us to pray for their protection from all kinds of harm. We told her to tell the name of Jesus and His blood and we prayed for her. Totally 1095 Gospel books and 1000 Cross-flags were distributed.

Team 2: Sisters: Pitchaiammal, Esther Ebenezer, Chellakani, Clementus Mary.

We distributed Gospel books to all the houses in the Somarasampettai panchayat. When we gave it to a priest in Agraharam he angrily chased us and told that he would throw the books in the bin. When we gave book to a lady living opposite to his, she gladly got the book and asked us to send more books. We were very tired because of the heat so we stood under a coconut tree. A coconut from that tree fell near us and thus God refreshed us. Totally 1400 Gospel books and 1000 Cross-flags were distributed.

Similarly we prayed for many sick people in Suravallipatti, Yagapudaiyanpatti villages. Totally 1000 Gospel books and 1000 Cross-flags were distributed.

Team 5: Sisters: Kasthuri Subbiah, Mary Meena, Mariyal.

We ministered in 10 villages surrounding Manikandam union. A person in Yesanapatti village asked us to go from the village. But we gave John's Gospel books to all the people in the village and moved to the next village. Totally 850 Gospel books and 1000 Cross-flags were distributed.

Team 6: Brothers: Palraj, Joseph Tharsees, Anthony, Abraham.

A person in the village where we went asked us whether we came to do religious conversion and asked us to go away from that village. Except that person we shared the Gospel and gave 1000 Gospel books and 1000 Cross-flags.

Team 7: Brothers: Prem Anand, Savarimuthu, Noah Andiappan.

In Poongodi village, a festival was going on. They were sacrificing a goat. We met some of them and told that Jesus shed His blood for the sins of mankind. They accepted it and realized that all the rituals were unwanted. Many told that they would attend church. We prayed for many sick people. Totally 925 Gospel books and 1000 Cross-flags were distributed.

Team 8: Sisters: Santhakumari, Sharada, Deborah, Leela.

We distributed John's Gospel books and tracts in 9 villages. Only one person opposed us. Others received the books with God's fear. A 10th std boy from Kunathur village suddenly got paralyzed and became dumb. We prayed for him and told about Jesus to his parents. We asked them to attend Church and told that Jesus will heal him. Totally 1000 Gospel books and 1000 Cross-flags were distributed.

THERE IS A HOPE FOR YOU...

Dear brother/sister in Christ,

Our God is a God who gives hope to the hopeless and helps in times of trouble and distress. When we feel there is no one to help us and we feel completely hopeless, God will be there for us. You may be a believer or non-believer. Whoever you may be; if you have lost hope in your life be assured that the hand of God is in your life. All you need to do is seek His strength and guidance to help you when you feel hopeless.

There are certain truths you have to be aware of

- 1. God considers you as you are.
- 2. God expects you to be holy and righteous.
- 3. God expects you to humble yourself to the word of God.
- 4. God expects you to obey Him.

First, you need to understand that God accepts you as a person as you are. You are unique in His sight. No matter what your social status, education, and color is, He accepts you as you are and respects you as a person. God hears you when you cry out to him. He is eagerly waiting for you to seek Him with all your heart.

Many times you many think as a sinner my prayers will not be heard because I am a sinner. You may expect Christian preaches and leaders to pray for you on your behalf. But God expects that you pray individually and He is interested to hear your prayers rather than others.

Second, God expects us to be holy. We read in 1 peter 1: 13-16, "But just as he whom called you is holy, so be holy in all you do; for it is written: "Be holy because I am holy". "You may think it is a very difficult to be holy. But by being holy you can win the world and trample the devil. Moreover we read in Gal 5:16-17, “So I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh.” Also, we read in 1 Peter 2:11, “Beloved, I urge you as sojourners and exiles to abstain from the passions of the flesh, which wage war against your soul.”

People may look at your outward appearances. But God looks at your heart. He sees all the steps that you take to become holy every day. Maybe the steps are slow. But God will surely reward you in every step you take to be holy.

Third, God expects us to humble ourselves before His word. Even when we reach high positions and power, God expects us to humble ourselves. But today people become haughty and forget His word when their problems are solved. Prov 29:23 says, “One’s pride will bring him low, but he who is lowly in spirit will obtain honor.” So humble yourselves before God and His word.

Fourth, God expects us to obey Him. Only when we obey Him, He will bless us. 1 Sam 15: 22 says, “Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams.” Since Abraham obeyed God we see that his generation was blessed in Genesis 22nd chapter. So obey to God’s voice to get His blessings.

Next we need to understand that our hope rests in Jesus alone. Because Jesus is the one who can give us eternal hope.

- 1. He is the one who can forgive our sins
- 2. He is the one to reconcile us with God
- 3. He is the one to give us victory over death.

First, Jesus is the one who died on the cross for our sins so that our sins may be washed away. Jesus is a free gift of God for mankind. We all have sinned and have fallen short of glory. We read I John 1:8, 10 “If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.”

Many people ignore sin and live in sin. Some try to offer sacrifices and some try to do good works. But we need to understand that Jesus is the only solution to be cleansed from our sin as we read in Ephesians 1:7, “In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace.”

Second, He is the only one who can reconcile us with God. Man has a longing to have fellowship with God because we come from him as we read in Acts 17:28, “It is through him that we are able to live, to do what we do, and to be who we are. As your own poets have said, ‘We all come from him.’ Therefore it is through him alone can we reconcile with him as we read in John 14:6, “Jesus answered, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. The only way to the Father is through me.”

Finally, he is one who gives us victory over death. Today people are afraid of death. They try to postpone death. But we need to have the boldness and courage to face death because Jesus came to deliver us from death as we read in Heb 2:14-15, “These children are people with physical bodies. So Jesus himself became like them and had the same experiences they have. Jesus did this so that, by dying, he could destroy the one who has the power of death the devil. Jesus became like these people and died so that he could free them. They were like slaves all their lives because of their fear of death.”

Dear children of God! If you have lost all your hope and are dismayed., do not worry because there is always hope in Jesus. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace. We need not be afraid of the worldly people or worry about the worldly things.

There is always hope in Jesus! Praise God!

Glory to God!

Will you pray at least for a minute?

Pray without ceasing. 1 Thessalonians 5:17
