Kindly pray for the educational needs of our Home children & staff children for the academic year 2012- 2013.

I thank God for everyone who prays & supports our ministries.

I will fulfil the number of your days.

Exodus 23:26

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ who await the promise of the Lord this Month. The promise that the Lord gives you this month is,

“I will fulfil the number of your days.” Exodus 23:26.

Yes! my dear brothers and sisters, the Lord wants to fulfil the number of your days.

Today many people want to live long and fulfil the number of their days in different ways. Some people exercise to extend their lives, some eat healthy foods and some go for medical check-ups on a regular basis. All this will help in certain ways. But it is the Lord who can fulfil the number of your days.

We have a very short life in this world. Every individual is assigned a task by God to complete before they take their last breath. But many individuals die without completing their task. There are only very few people who complete their task. It is an eternal blessing to complete our task before we take our last breath. The task of reflecting Christ and spreading the Gospel is very crucial.

God is interested to give us a full life span. Some die very young, some die in the mid age and some die in their old age. But what is important is that we need to fulfil God’s desire and He will grant us the grace to finish the task He has assigned for us in our life span and He will bless us with a full life span.

When we read the background of this chapter we find that Israelites had the task of achieving the Promised Land.

- 1. The task required obedience.
- 2. The task required collective effort.
- 3. The task required spiritual strength.

1. The Promised Land Canaan was a challenge to be achieved. It was definitive plan of God for the Israelites. There was no doubt that God was surely going to give them the land of Canaan. Although God's plan for the Promised Land was definite the Israelites had to fight for it to achieve it. The role of the people was to simply listen to Moses and do what he commanded them to do. If they would have done so they would have achieved the Promised Land quickly. God tells in Exodus 23:29-30 "If Israel is obedient; God will drive out the Canaanites little by little. The process will give Israel time to grow in numbers, learn to farm, and see God fulfil his promises. Possession of the Promised Land will come little by little. But we see the disobedience of the Israelites in many instance.

Similarly, today we are a chosen generation because we are saved by the blood of the Lamb. God has a definite plan for our lives and He wants us to fulfil His plan in our lives. When we take efforts to obey and accomplish His plan in our lives, He will help us achieve our assigned task soon. If we grumble like the Israelites we may not fulfil the task, God has for us in our life time.

2. The task of achieving the Promised Land required collective effort. God choose Moses to lead the Israelites. He was a trained leader. God used him to bring the Israelites out of the hands of Pharaoh. God did many miracles. But the Israelites were restless people. They grumbled against his leadership. A collective task requires cooperation from all the people. But we see that there was lack of collectiveness to achieve the task that needed collective effort. Because of their lack of collective effort the Israelites took many years to even come near the promised land of Canaan.

Therefore we need to understand that attaining the task God has for us will be easy only when we are able to maintain a smooth collectiveness with our fellow people. We need to build this collective support in constant way. It may even take our whole life time to achieve it. But we need to remember that when we coordinate and work we will surely attain the task of the Lord easily. Moreover, the Lord will work in unbelievable ways as we work towards achieving the task.

3. Although the task was physical in nature it was at the same time a spiritual warfare. It required spiritual strength. The Israelites had to overcome the pagan gods and worship the God of Israel alone. God gives clear command to the Israelites in Exodus 23:32-33 “You shall make no covenant with them and their gods. They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against me; for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.” But on the other hand we see that the Israelites made idols and worshipped other Gods. The Israelites were not able to fully understand the power of God even though they had seen such powerful miracles. Their eyes were blinded to see the glory of God and as a consequence they lagged behind to a great extent in reaching the Promised Land.

Therefore we must understand that our task requires spiritual strength and it is very easier for us to get impure. We need to take extra efforts to keep ourselves pure. When God gives us this spiritual strength He will fight for us and will help us attain the task He has assigned for us even though we many think it may be impossible for us to accomplish. And it will be His grace that we accomplish our task. Therefore we need to do certain things in order to fulfil the plan of God in our lifes and attain his task so that God may grant us His grace to achieve the eternal gift He has for us.

1. We need to put our trust in God alone

2. We need to be obedient to the voice of the Holy Spirit

First, we need to put our trust in our God alone. Trusting our God alone means that we must not bow down before other Gods, worship them or follow their practices. Must not make covenant with other gods. Must not let ungodly men be in and around our place and influence our lives as we read in Exodus 23. Only when we do so and trust our God alone He will bless us with the eternal gift of life he has for us in heaven. The Psalmist says in psalm 20:7, “Some trust in chariots and some in horses. But we trust in the name of the Lord our God.” Therefore let us trust in our Lord alone.

In addition to this eternal gift of heaven, He also gives us worldly blessings as we read in the same chapter. Some of the blessings are. He will bless our food and water. He will take the sickness away from us. No one will miscarry or be barren in the land. He will send his terror before us. He will make our enemies turn their backs and run. He will drive our enemies little by little and He will bless us with a full life span.

Second, we need to be obedient to the voice of the Holy Spirit without questioning the Holy Spirit. Since we cannot foresee things with our natural abilities we should obey the Holy Spirit and must walk in the spirit. The Holy spirit will determine what is right for us and will guide us into all truth. We read this in Galatians 5:16, "This then I say, walk in the spirit and ye shall not fulfil the lust of flesh." When we do so we will be able to overcome the worldly desires. We will not go wrong in our lives. We will be able to face our future with boldness and confidence when we follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

The devotee sings...

*Trust and obey for there is no other way
To be happy in Jesus
But to Trust and obey.*

Keep singing this song above and confess your faith as follows.

"I will put my trust on Jesus alone and listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit."

Yes! When you do so the Lord will bless you and extend the number of your days and will give you a full life span to attain His eternal gift he has for you.

Glory to God!

HOLINESS

Holiness is an integral part of every Christian's life. We have several reasons in the Bible of why we should be holy. Peter says in I Peter 1:15, 16 " But as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct. Since, it is written, "You shall be holy, for I am holy". Moreover we read in Matthew 5:48, "You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect"

We must be holy, because this is the purpose for which Christ came into this world. Paul writes in the II Corinthians 5:15, "and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised." Moreover we read in Titus 2:14, "who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works." We must be holy, because this is the only proof that we love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity.

When a person is holy he will try to abstain from every sin, he will try to follow every commandment, he will strive to be like our Lord Jesus Christ, he will follow the fruits of the Holy Spirit, and he will follow after the fear of God.

Many people today compromise with this world. Many misinterpret the Bible and try to compromise with this world. But when we stick to the Bible and do what it commands us to do we will be able to maintain the holiness God expects. Some people compromise at certain times and at other times they maintain holiness. But we need to maintain all the time. Let us examine our holiness.

We must be willing to fight for holiness. We may think it is easy to be holy. But we need to strive to be holy everyday. We need to fight against sin to the extent of shedding blood so that we may be holy as we read in Hebrews 12: 4, “In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood.”

Moreover, we need to train ourselves to be holy. Holiness does not come all of a sudden in a day. It takes time. We read in I Timothy 4:7 “Train your self for godliness”. Yes! We need to train ourselves to be Godly so that we will become holy like Him.

We need to cleanse ourselves so that we might become holy. We read this in II Corinthians 7:1, “Let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God”.

When we maintain such holiness God will be pleased with us and He will bless us. He will also use us for His glory. We will also be able to see God only when we maintain such holiness. We read this in Hebrews 12:14, “...and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord”. Moreover, in these last days we require a holiness that would cost us much.

Therefore, we need to become holy everyday. We must also strive to be more holy every day as we read in Revelation 22:11 “The holy still be holy”.

Few lines from the testimonies written by Believers

Mrs. Thangaraj, Palakadu

I was praying that my daughter should have a normal delivery and that she should be blessed with a boy baby. TVGM promotional office sisters who visit us every month also prayed for this with burden. The Lord heard the prayers and gave a boy baby to my daughter. I am writing this testimony as I took a vow to write testimony in '100-village ministry' magazine.

Bro. Jeremiah.

Although my son Moses had good education he struggled without a good job and was heart-broken. I prayed that I would write testimony in '100-village ministry' magazine if my son gets a job. The Lord showed mercy and gave him a good job.

Sis. Chellamal, Kovai.

My right hand pained a lot. I did not go to the doctor but prayed that I would write testimony in '100-village ministry' magazine. The Lord immediately healed the pain in my hand.

February 2012 promise verse, 'You shall weep no more' has been fulfilled in my life. I wrote a letter asking you to pray for the delivery of my 3rd Sister.
