HUNDRED VILLAGE MINISTRY

MAY 2012

I, I am he who comforts you.

Isaiah 51:12

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ that await the promise of the Lord this month,

The promise that the Lord gives you this month is,

“I, I am he who comforts you” Isaiah 51:12.

Yes! my beloved brothers and sisters in Christ. Many times we may undergo situations where we might feel completely lost. We might feel lonely. We might feel dejected. But we need to realize that our God is the source of all comfort. Our God claims that He is the source of Comfort for His Children. Therefore He is the one to whom we have to look for when we need comfort. We read this in 2 Cor 1:3, and Rom 15:5. Usually we find easy means to be comforted. We might go for a walk or we might go to a counselor or call a friend and might do other things. But what we need to realize is that above all God is the ultimate comforter and He himself claims that he is the ultimate source.

When we read Isaiah 51 we read that the Israelites were rescued from their suffering (Isaiah 51:17-23), from their punishment (Isaiah 51:17), from their helplessness (Isaiah 51:18). from inconsolable and fainting state (Isaiah 51: 19-20). From this state God comforts Israelites. He is the consolation (Isaiah 51:12). He is the miraculous Redeemer (Isaiah 51:15). He is the protector of them (Isaiah 51:16).

Moreover God removes the cup from the hand of Israelites and puts it in the hands of their tormentors (Isaiah 51:22,23). Yes! when God does a miracle in our lives our enemies will run away. Even if we try to search our enemies we will not be able to find them. Let us see in detail

How does God Comfort His Children?

- 1. God with his power delivers his people
- 2. God drives away all our fears
- 3. God gives us promises.

First, when we read the background of Isaiah 51: 13 we read that the Assyrian siege of Jerusalem was suddenly ended by the intervention of the Lord God Almighty. Although there are many times when Israelites undergo difficult situation God rescues them every time when they seek His help. Yes! our Lord Almighty is there to fight for us. When we let our God intervene our problems will become nothing.

Moreover, when we read the first portion of the promise verse. The phrase opens as "I am He" It is an echo of the verse Isaiah 51:9, "Was it not you who cut Rahab to pieces and pierced the dragon?" God claims of his authority to comfort his children.

We also read about the power of God in Job 26:12-14, By His power He stilled the sea; by his understanding he shattered Rahab, By His wind the heavens were made fair; his hand pierced the fleeing serpent. Behold, these are but the outskirts of his ways, and how small a whisper do we hear of Him! But the thunder of His power who can understand?

Second, God comfort us by casting away all our fears. Today, we fear men who are ungodly. Many times they threaten us and we tend to fear them. But in the sight of the Lord they are all like grass as we read in Isaiah 40:6, " All flesh is grass and all its beauty is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades when the breath of the Lord blows on it; surely the people are grass. The grass withers, the flowers fades, the word of our God will stand forever. Therefore, we on the other hand must fear our Lord God Almighty alone.

Third, God gives us His promises and comforts us. When God gives us His promise we are comforted. Maybe we are weak in our thoughts or emotions but Gods promises enlightens us when we recall the promises of he has given us.

Things we have to do in order to get God's comfort

1. Recognize our need for comfort

2. Remember who God is.

3. Regard the promised future with anticipation .

First, we need to recognize the fact that we are in need of comfort. We need to recognize that our sins are the reason for our miseries. Many time we forget this reason for our sorrow. We tend to think of other factors that are the reason for our worries and we never recognize that it is because of the fact that we have forgotten our God and have sinned we undergo grievous and sad situations. Therefore we need to recognize our sins against our God.

Second, we need to remember that it is God who made us and we need to remember the power of his holiness. Our God is not a God who will let us down. He is not like a man who dies and who withers like grass. But our God is a God who is interested in our lives and he constantly works in our lives. He is still patient and He rescues us when we fall. We read that the Israelites forgot this fact at times as we read in Isaiah 51: 12, "You forgot the Lord your Maker, who stretches out the heavens and who lay the foundations of the earth," Therefore we need to constantly remember that God is all powerful and he will be able to deliver us from any difficult situation.

Third, we need to have an anticipation that our sufferings will come to an end. We need to cling to the promise he has given us and must own the promise. But many times we loose hope when nothing happens. But when we cling to the promise of the Lord He will end our trembling as we read in Isaiah 51: 22, "Look, I take from your hand the cup of trembling. The goblet cup of my wrath you will not be caused to drink any more of it again. And I will set it in the hand of your tormentors..."

The devotee sings...

Dear God of comforter
How wonderful is your presence

Keep singing this song.

Confess you faith saying!

"God will surely bring an end to all my worries and will comfort me".

Glory to God!
