GREAT SHALL BE THE PEACE OF YOUR CHILDREN.

Isaiah 54:13

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ that await the promise of the Lord this month. The promise that the Lord gives you this month is

“ Great shall be the peace of your children” Isaiah 54:13

While reading the background of this passage, we read that Isaiah has compared Israel to a barren women because of her unfaithfulness for some years. But in this passage God promises Israel to remove her shame and bless her with fruitful and joyous future. Therefore this chapter is a call to Joyous worship, emphasis of God’s lasting covenant, and God’s promise to comfort and protect His Children.

Today, in this world of impurity, lust and addictions, every parent have a concern about their children as to how their children would be safe and how they would not be corrupted by the world. Moreover, every parent’s satisfaction depends on how their children perform. When their children perform well, they are happy. But when they are not capable or do not perform well they are very disappointed. Therefore, children are the main focus for any parent. Worldly parents might take every worldly effort, to give their children the best education, the best food, and strive for the best for their children in many ways. But only when the children are taught to experience God in their lives, they will grow in His fear and obey his commandments they will have great peace. Their peace will be our peace. Are you worried about the peace of your children? Be encouraged ! God will surely grant your children great peace. Praise God!

We need to understand that the purpose of why Jesus came into this world was to give peace to mankind. Peace that will make us happy, peace that will prosper us and peace that will pass on to many generations as we read in Luke 1:79 “To give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

God wants to give us two kinds of peace. The external peace with everyone and the inner peace in our personal lives.

First, we need to maintain peace with our external circle. Today, people fail to maintain external peace. People do not want to let go their ego. They are quick to quarrel and loose peace. It is very important because only when we do so can we have the real peace in our lives as we read in Heb. 12:14 "Strive for peace with everyone, and for thee holiness, without which no one will see the Lord:" and we also read this in Romans 12:18 "If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all"

Second, we need to have an inner peace. Many times when we face problems we are worried we loose our inner peace. Moreover, our inner peace will be disturbed to a great extent when our children are not up to Godly standards. During such times we need to submit our requests to God and trust God. Because He is the one who will take care of our worries. When we do so we will have inner peace as we read in Philippians 4:6-7 "Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

What are the things we need to do so that our children will live in peace?

1. We need to show our children the right path

2. We need to spend time with our children

3. We must set an example to our children.

4. We need to teach our children godly values.

5. We must warn our children of the dangers of addictions.

First, we need to show our children the right way and train them in the right direction as we read in Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it." Yes, the training we give our children when they are young will help them lead a peaceful life.

Second, we need to spend time with our Children. We as parents may have a busy schedule. But it is very important to set apart sometime to spend time with our children. Spending time with our children means taking interest in their personal life, taking part in their school or college activities, listening to their concerns, praying with them and telling them what all the Lord has done in our lives as we read in Psalm 78: 4, "We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, and His might, and the wonders that He has done". The more we take time and tell them about the Lord the more they will know about the power of God and they will not fear anything and live in peace.

Third, we need to set an example for our children like Jesus set an example to the disciples and to the whole world. Our walk must be louder than our talk. Today, many parents are themselves weak in their personal lives and set bad examples to their children. But they expect their children to be good. When we set a bad example we certify the wrong acts and we cannot expect them to lead a good life.

Fourth, we need to teach our children Godly values as we read in Ephesians 6: 4, "Fathers do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord." Therefore we need to teach our children to follow the instructions of the Lord and live a life filled with the fruits of the Holy Spirit. When our children are filled with the fruits of the Holy Spirit they will be able to follow the instructions of the Lord with fear and great will be the peace in their lives.

Fifth, we need to warn our children about the dangers of addictions. Today, the devil is ruining the life of many young people with different kinds of addictions. They may be good, God-fearing, obedient e.t.c... But sometimes addiction of drug and others can easily over-come our children and make them stumble. Therefore we must encourage our children to stay away from addiction as their bodies are God's temple as we read in I Cor 3: 16, "Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's spirit dwells in you?"

The devotee sings...

My Peace I give unto you.
It's a peace that the world
cannot give

It's a peace that the world
cannot understand

Peace to know, peace to live,

My peace I give unto you

Yes! Jesus is the one who can give our children and us the peace we long for!

Confess your faith as follows,

"I will surrender
my children to Jesus.
He will surely give them
the peace that the world
cannot give"

Glory to God!

Researching the word of God

Today many believers struggle when it comes to researching the Word of God in their lives, and sometimes they get frustrated. Some believers think it is not meant for them. But we must understand that the word of God is for all and not for a few. We need to take efforts and spend time to research the scripture and mediate on His word as God expects us to do so. He expects us to understand the Scripture as we read in 1Peter 2:2, "Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation". Moreover, we must fear the Lord and cling to what the scriptures says. When we do so God will show His covenant to us as we read in Psalms 25:14, "The friendship of the Lord is for those who fear him, and her makes known to them his covenant."

As we research any scripture from the Bible we need to keep three things in mind.

1. We must use biblical tools to research the word of God
2. We must then seek the help of the Holy Spirit to give us spiritual insights.
3. We must then pass on the things that we have researched and learnt to others.

First, we need to research the word of God; and must try to understand it in the way God intends it to be. We must not try to understand it in our own way. We must not try to bend the Scripture as we wish but instead we must cling to His Word and understand it from His perspective using the wisdom God has given us. Just because we do not like something we cannot twist the Scriptures. In order to understand what the Bible says. We have many tools that help us understand the word of God. Some of the tools that will help us research the words of God are...

- ◇ We need to read the background of any scripture that we try to understand
- ◇ We need to read the passage/ chapter thoroughly that we try to understand and not just a particular verse alone.
- ◇ We need to mark repeated words, make note of other similarities, and look for other similar instances in the Bible.
- ◇ We need to refer good commentaries about that particular verse.
- ◇ Finally, we need to take down notes of what we have learnt.

Second, we need to rely on the Holy Spirit to help us give spiritual insights from the notes we have taken down. Only when we rely on the Holy Spirit and search it with all our heart we will be able to find the spiritual truths and insights. We must read the word of God with our spiritual eyes because the scriptures are spiritual in nature and a worldly person cannot understand this as we read in 1 Corinthians 2:6-14, "The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned." We need to rely on the Holy Spirit to understand the depths of God as we read in 1 Corinthians 2:10, "these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God." The more we read the more our mind is renewed and is more able to understand as we read in Romans 12:2, "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect."

Finally, we must pass on our insights of God to others.

The more we research and mediate the word of God in our lives the more He will reveal His insights to us. We must teach others all that we have learnt. By doing so we will sow good seeds in others lives and we will be a blessing to them as we read in II Corinthians 9:6, "Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully". Moreover in Galatians 6:8 we read, "For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life." Therefore, we need to sow good seeds in others lives. In order to do so we must study the Word of God, with the intention of sharing our spiritual insights with others as God revealed to us. The more we share our spiritual thoughts and insights the more we will also learn from them. As we have freely received, let us also freely give.

When we research and mediate the word of God in such manner; God will bless us and use us for His glory as we read in Psalm 1: 1-2 "Blessed is the man...whose delight is in the law of the Lord and on his law he meditates day and night" Glory to God!
