I WILL CERTAINLY RESCUE YOU. Jeremiah 39:18

Dear brothers and sisters that await the promise of the Lord this month. The promise that the Lord gives you this month is that,

"I will certainly rescue you". Jeremiah 39:18

Yes! Dear brothers and sisters in Christ. May be you are struck in your life or you may think you have no hope in your life. Whatever the situation may be, our God is there to rescue you this month. The Psalmist says, in Psalm 46:1, "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Yes! Our Lord is always there for you to rescue you. Do not be dismayed!

When we read the background of this promise verse, we read that this promise was given to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian by prophet Jeremiah. Ebed-melech was a man who trusted the Lord and who was a God-fearing man. Although, the whole city of Jerusalem was being captured and destroyed, God's promise comes to Ebed-melech saying, "I will certainly rescue you".

There are many instances in our life that we need to be rescued. May be it is because of our firm trust in God that we may have to face situations like Daniel or may be it is because of our disobedience like Jonah or because of our recurring sins like the Israelites. Whatever the situation may be, our Lord will be there to rescue you. Lets us analyze the above three examples from the Bible.

When we read the story of Daniel we read that God rescued him from the Lions den. The Lord sent His angel and shut the mouth of the Lions. Daniel had to take great courage to enter the Lions den. But the Lord graciously rescued him by binding the mouths of the lions. In this case we see that Daniel was a God-fearing man and because of his firm trust in God he had to undergo difficult situation. But sill Daniel never questions God. He rescues Daniel and lifts him up because of his strong faith.

Maybe people are jealous of you in your work place or in your neighborhood. Whatever it may be, when you walk upright in the sight of the Lord and stand firm in faith, He will make His glory shine on you in your work place or neighborhood and will rescue you. Praise God!

Next, when we read the story of Jonah, we see that God rescues him from drowning into the sea. Although, he disobeyed God, He still shows His grace and mercy on Jonah. God rescues him, takes him to Nineveh and uses him.

Maybe you have disobeyed God in your life like Jonah. You may fear the situation in front of you or you may find difficulty in handling things. But our God is there to rescue you when you walk in the will of God. He will make the difficulties that seem too big for you so light when you fully trust on Him.

Finally, when we read the story of Israelites we read that the Israelites went away several times from the Lord and here is one such instance in Judges 3:7, "The Israelites did evil in the sight of the Lord; they forgot the Lord their God and served the Baals and Asherahs". But when the Israelites cried to the Lord, He raised up Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother who saves them. Thus God empowers him and gives Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into the hands of Othniel, who over-powered him. So the land of Israel had peace for forty years until Othniel died.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ maybe you have been repeatedly sinning against God like Israelites. You may have tried many times to overcome your sins but still you are unable to stop sinning. Do not worry! Our God will empower you with Holy Spirit and give you special strength to overcome your sins. He will surely rescue you. Praise God!

What do we need to do in order to be rescued?

1. We need to call on Him alone.

2. We need to put our faith and trust in Him alone.

3. We need to implement our faith in action

First, we need to worship Him alone. Today, some people call on Jesus as well as other Gods. But only when we call on Him alone we will be rescued from our bondage. As this is the very first commandment our Lord has given us. We read this in Exodus 20:3, “you shall have no other gods before me.”

Second, we need to put our trust and faith in our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. The worldly people may trust in their power, influence and wealth. But we as children of God must look up to Him alone as we read in Psalm 20:7, “Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the Lord our God.” We must make this verse true in our lives. Only when we have this faith and trust in God we will become eligible to receive His grace and will rescue us from our bondages.

Third, we need to be willing to get into action of faith. When we get into action of faith we may have to face challenging situations that may question our spiritual integrity like Daniel. But when we accept the consequences and move forward in action of faith, He will rescue us.

When we do the above three things He will surely rescue us and will break every bondage in our life. We may have to face oppositions, be ridiculed, be abused etc.,

But the final victory will be ours as the Lord promised Prophet Jeremiah in Jeremiah 1:19, “They will fight against you but will not overcome you, for I am with you and will rescue you,” declares the Lord.

Moreover when we try to resolve difficult situations in our life let us do the best by standing firm in trust and faith in God. He will take care of the rest. He will take care of our weak part that we think we cannot achieve by our strength as the Psalmist says in Psalm 18:17, “He rescued me from my powerful enemy, from my foes, who were to strong for me.

The Devotee sings...

During times of fear when I call him

He answers me always
He will be with me and will rescue me

He always lifts me up.

Yes! Our Lord will always be there for you in times of fear. He will always be with you and rescue you.

Keep confessing your faith as follows. I trust in the Lord will all my heart. He will certainly rescue me and deliver me.

Glory to God!

LEADERSHIP LESSONS FROM SOLOMON

While reading the life of Solomon we find several good leadership characters in Him. We as a leader need to learn from others. Let us see some of his leadership characteristics.

1. He seeks knowledge and wisdom over fame and fortune

The first leadership lesson that we can learn from King Solomon is that as an effective leader he seeks wisdom and knowledge over fame and fortune (1 Kings 3:9). Soon after Solomon was appointed as the King of Israel, the LORD God Almighty appeared to him in a dream and promised to give him whatever he asked for. In response to God's promise, Solomon asked for wisdom to effectively lead the people of Israel. God blessed him not only with wisdom but also with fame and fortune that he did not seek.

Today, many people long to make their fortune and be famous someday. But effective leader knows that fortune and fame can only come by way of knowledge, skill and wisdom.

2. He recruited wise counselors

The second leadership principle that we learn from King Solomon is that effective leaders always recruit wise counselors to advise them in all matters. King Solomon wrote "with many advisors there is success" (Proverbs 24:6). This means that good leaders are not afraid to hire people who are more knowledgeable than them. More than that, they are active listeners and they humble themselves to heed the advice of their subordinates.

But today, many leaders never heed the advice of their subordinates. They expect the subordinates to listen to them. By doing so they will never be able to achieve in their life.

3. He promotes integrity within his organization.

The third leadership lesson that we learn from King Solomon is that effective leaders promote integrity within their organization. The wise king of Israel wrote: “Kings detest wrongdoing, for a throne is established through righteousness. Kings take pleasure in honest lips; they value a man who speaks the truth” (Proverbs 16:12,13). Integrity leads to long-term satisfaction and loyalty.

But today, integrity of many leaders is at stake. Many want to achieve their task by any means. Integrity is costly yet it is worthy to cling to it.

4. He remains very consistent.

Effective leaders are always consistent. But many times leaders start to relax after a considerable development. When they get fame they start to boast about their past glory and never look for next success. The fame they get brings them down. They lose the consistency in their task ahead of them. Solomon remains consistent in his task. Therefore we need to learn to be consistent in our life and not let past success overcome us.

5. He confronts and eliminates destructive subordinates

The fifth leadership lesson from King Solomon is that effective leaders confront and eliminate destructive subordinates. Poor attitudes of subordinates can tear apart an organization. The best leaders guard their organizations from those with such poor attitudes. Solomon wrote: “Remove the dross from the silver, and out comes material for the silversmith; remove the wicked from the king’s presence, and his throne will be established through righteousness” (Proverbs 25:4,5).

But today many leaders try not to eliminate. They fear to eliminate. But only when such people are eliminated the organization will succeed in its growth.

6. He employs vision to inspire and lead his organization.

Solomon wrote, “for lack of vision the people perish (Proverb 29 : 18 ” Thus, his leadership principle is that leaders must lead through a compelling vision. Because vision is the major key to effective organization.

But many leaders today lack vision and purpose in life. They must have short-term and long term goals. Only when they set vision as the top priority they can run their race successfully.

7. We must practice self-control unlike Solomon.

Finally, the seventh leadership principle that we can learn from King Solomon’s mistake is that we need to practice self-control in our personal lives. Even though he was named the wisest person on earth, King Solomon did not always act in the wisest manner. During his reign, he acquired a harem of 700 wives and 300 concubines (1King 11 : 3). While most of those wives and concubines were gifts from kings from other neighboring nations. They eventually led King Solomon astray and forced him to erect shrines to foreign idols. Solomon’s indiscretions caused his descendants to stumble and the Kingdom of Israel to be torn apart during his son’s reign after him.

Therefore, we have to practice self-control and understand that even a strong leader can go astray. Therefore, we need to be cautious in every walk of our life.

In order to conclude we must practice these principles in our day today life like Solomon. Even though we may have weakness in our lives, we need to ask the Lord to give us special strength to overcome our weakness in our lives.

Glory to God!

Will you pray at least for a minute?

Pray without ceasing. 1 Thessalonians 5:17
